I hope you had a great time....I did! I will get feedback from everyone in the morning...

I have been emailing all night and must get a few hours sleep before I have to get up and pack for The Kennedy Center Awards weekend....

The evening was sensational...

Did you have fun?

My favorite line. "So Andrew, tell us about the wedding. What are you wearing?" He was not sure if I was kidding or not...and I was perfectly straight with him.

I did leave him two copies of "The King's Speech" (one for back-up) and begged him to let me watch him watch the film.

I must get them both back. Harvey will kill me if he finds out I lent them to him. Harvey is trying to get the Palace (and Prince Charles) to see the film....

I told Andrew to say he saw the film in the theater in New York. I will get the name of the theater where it's playing. Please make sure Andrew does not say I lent him a dvd. Harvey will really be angry. Will talk to you tomorrow.

Your table looked great and the food was delicious.

xoxo Peg
