Jeffrey,

I apologize that I didn't deal with this sooner, but I am today. I got overloaded with my work, but I'll get into this. Things are moving along on the apartment with the new decorator.

Also, it's that time of year again...Can the Gotham awards have their annual $10,000 dollars for the chairs this year? They're going to send you an invite and tell you all the amazing celebs that are coming.

Let me know your thoughts.

xoxo,
Peggy

Dear Jeff,

Few days ago I met with the producer of a Slovak/Ukrainian movie "The line", which is commercially the most most successful and also probably the best Slovak movie ever made (details in the attachment). She is in the US right now, trying to promote the movie, that was nominated for Oscar by Slovakia. According to her on December 11 a shortlist of 9 movies (from overall 92 national nominations) will be announced by the Academy. Of course, her biggest concern right now is how to make sure her movie will be on this short list. She asked me if I could help to introduce her and the movie to someone who could help. Given your extensive network of contacts I wanted to ask you if you couldn't offer an advice, eventually help to introduce her to somebody who could help. She is not a close friend of mine but I've known her for years and consider her a fair and positive person. It's a big thing for her, but also for Slovakia and I want to help. Sorry if I am bothering you with this request and forget this email in case it creates any problem for you. I just think it would be a mistake not to seek your opinion.

Best,

Miroslav Lajčák
